The scalar route equation predicts the plateau length from the size of the dormant route entries, not from the amplitude P_r from the amplitude P_r at plateau entry (brief): median 2.7
from the size of the dormant route entries: median 1 perfect prediction
number of events
3000
2500
2000
1500
1000
500
0
10^{-2}
10^{-1}
10^{0}
10^{1}
10^{2}
10^{3}
10^{4}
10^{5}
10^{6}
observed / predicted plateau time (plateau entry to next event; last bin: >= 1e6 or never)